NOMINATIONS MUST BE SUBMITTED BY: July 21, 2010 @ 5pm

Person of the Year Award

The following criteria will be used by a confidential panel of judges including past recipients and by secret ballot to select the recipient of the Person of the Year Award.

Purpose

The award is intended to honor a person who makes a substantial unselfish contribution to the Fairfield / Camas County area. As a result of the nominee's effort, the community should have received substantial benefits and become a better place to live and work.

Community Involvement

Nominees should be involved in and have a history of the betterment of the community, through active civic participation. Their involvement may be in health or human services, education, recreation, arts or cultural improvement, economic development, government, or community-based organizations which contribute to the quality-of-life in our community. As a result of this involvement, nominees should have specific and noteworthy accomplishments, done within the last 2 years.

Cooperation and Support

Nominees must have demonstrated willingness to assist in business and community projects by participating personally in projects or events that have resulted in substantial betterment of the community. Nominees may be members of the Fairfield Chamber of Commerce.

Leadership

Nominees must have exhibited leadership in community projects and have completed them successfully. Evidence of effective leadership in vital community projects and organizations will be considered. Nominees should be known and respected for their integrity.

Nominations will be accepted from anyone in the community. The deadline for nominations is July 21, 2010 @ 5pm. All nominations must be submitted in a sealed envelope to the Chamber President. The Person of the Year Award recipient will be announced at the Community Fair Picnic, on July 31st, at 7pm. For further information, call 764-2222.
